Miss Cressy Is Double Ring Service Bride

Weds Harold Goodwin At Her Home on Thompson
Street

The Rev. Richard Kellogg, pastor of the First Methodist church, read the double ring service for the wedding of Miss Muriel Gladys Cressy and Harold Tuttle Goodwin at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the bride's home, 45 Thompson street.

Mrs. Goodwin wore plum colored chiffon velvet with white orchid corsage. There were no attendants. The bride, who is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cressy, was graduated from the University of New Hampshire where she belongs to Alpha Xi Delta sorority, and later studied at the Marlboro Secretarial school. Of late she has been employed in the offices of Orr and Rolfe in this city. Mr. Goodwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Goodwin, 11 South Spring street, is a member of the staff of the Mechanics National Bank.

After returning from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin will live at 45 Thompson street. For traveling the bride wore a brown wool crepe suit with kolinsky collar.

Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goodwin, Miss Arudy Goodwin, Delmar Goodwin, and Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Goodwin, all of this city; Mrs. Sadie Tuttle of Littleton; Albert L. and Cleon Duke of Manchester.
