Frank L. Kelsey.

Collector for the Port of Blodgetts Landing.
Sunapee Ocean.

New Hampshire.

Dear Mr Kelsey.

I am glad that The Lake Sunapee Protective Association has got some young, hustling, young chap to represent them at Blodgetts this year. More power to your elbow, say I.

But, in our own personal case, you are about fifteen or twenty years too late; as we have been members of the Asso, since Ed Clay's grandfather wore knee pants--or somewhere along about that time.

Best regards to Thee and Thine from Me and Mine.

Will M. Cressy.
