

Wild Goose Waters

BLODGETT'S LANDING LAKE SUNAPEE, NEWBURY, NH

A.B. Johnson
Idlehurst was the group of cottages at the northern end of Blodgett's Landing.

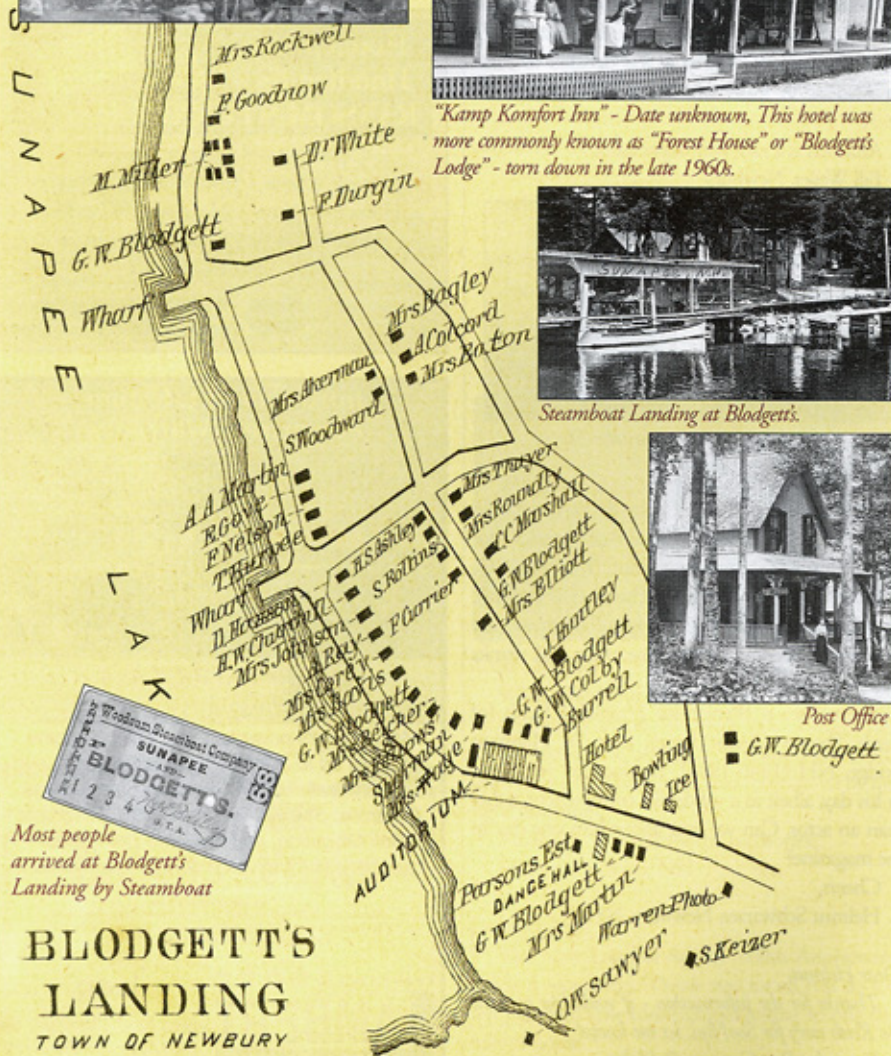

"Kamp Komfort Inn" - Date unknown. This hotel was more commonly known as "Forest House" or "Blodgett's Lodge" - torn down in the late 1960s.

Steamboat Landing at Blodgett's.

Post Office

Most people arrived at Blodgett's Landing by Steamboat

BLODGETT'S LANDING
TOWN OF NEWBURY

Wild Goose Waters

Docks, Boathouses and a boardwalk across the shore at Blodgett's Landing.

Blodgett's Landing was originally a campground for Spiritualist meetings. The numbers grew, and cottages, a hotel, a Post Office, and a store were built.

SUNAPEE LAKE SPIRITUALIST CAMP.
THIRTIETH ANNUAL
SUNAPEE LAKE
Spiritualist Camp Meeting
WILL BE HELD AT BLODGETT'S LANDING, N. H.

Commencing Sunday August 4,
and Closing Sunday September 1, 1907.

Officers of the Association.

President John Gage, Henniker.
Vice-President, I. K. Connor, Warner.
Secretary, John W. Clay, Sutton.
Treasurer, Mrs. Harriet C. Comstock, Newport.
Business Committee.
C. E. Gove, Riverdale.
Thomas Burpee, Sutton.
I. K. Connor, Warner.

Auditors.

C. C. Davis, Hartland, Vt. Mrs. H. G. Newman, Washington, N. H.

1907 Program.

The Casino provided a good hall for entertainment until the 1960s when it was torn down.

Cottages along Washington Street

Victorian Cottages along Front Street.